

euroSpline standard lightweight substrates

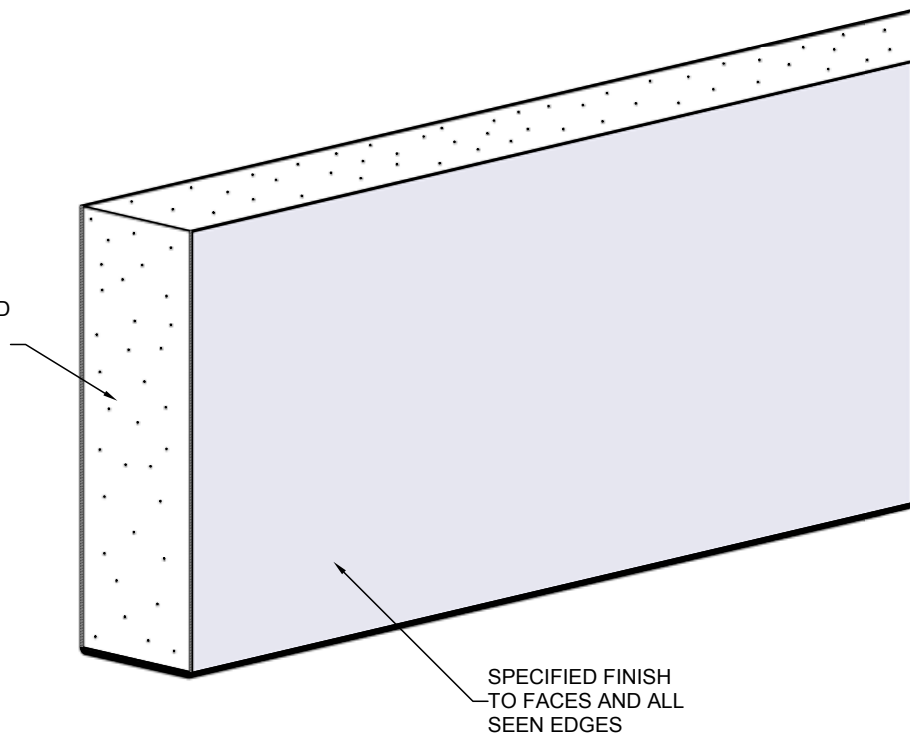

euroSpline is a lightweight beam product custom made in any length, width or thickness to suit your design. Available in two lightweight substrates, euroSpline features unique hollow construction to enable the concealment of services within.

europanel use two substrate types for our lightweight euroSpline product, both offering different finishing options.

1. light density fibreboard substrate

AVAILABLE IN LENGTHS
UP TO 3600MM

LIGHT DENSITY FIBREBOARD
SUBSTRATE IN
25, 32, 50mm
THICKNESSES

Colours & finishes

Our Light Density Fibreboard (LDF) substrate beams are available in all finishes from the europanel range. This includes:

Any veneer from any supplier

OR

Any polyurethane colour from the Dulux
colour range

OR

Any prefinished laminate from the Polytec range and most laminate colours available
from other suppliers.